

The South African Mathematics Foundation (SAMF) has generously donated funds to support delegates who wish to attend the Joint International Congress of the South African and American Mathematical Societies, which is taking place from 29 November - 3 December 2011 in Port Elizabeth, South Africa. These delegates should provide a short motivation as to why they want to attend the Congress and provide basic information on the type of support they are requesting.

To apply:

Please send an email to margot.collett@nmmu.ac.za with the following information

Name:

University or Institution associated with:

Title of talk:

Subject classification:

Short motivation:

Student applicants should also complete the following

Student number:

Degree registered for:

Email address:

Name of supervisor:

Supervisor email address:

Applications close on 5 October 2011